Miss Dorothy Parker Won First Prize in Spelling Contest.

A baseball spelling match at the town hall last evening, under the auspices of Daniel Lillie Relief corps, was won by the grammar school, 25 to 23. At the end of the eighth inning the score stood 23 to 23. In the ninth the high school was held scoreless. The grammar school therefore won the $5 prize offered by the relief corps. Miss Dorothy Parker of the high school won the individual prize of $2.50, having missed only one word during the contest. Lawrence Kimball and Miss Alno Mittinen, both of the grammar school, missed only one word each and the three best spellers had an interesting contest for first individual honor after the baseball match. Rev.

Will C. Harvey pronounced the words and was umpire of the match, which was enjoyed by a good audience.

About 70 persons attended a Congregational social at Mrs. Eliza F. Miller's on Thursday evening.

Charles Gove is ill with pneumonia and passed the crisis yesterday.

Theodore Clifford, aged 10 years, celebrated his anniversary yesterday by entertaining 20 of his young friends at his home.

Legislative Notes.

There will be a public hearing Tuesday evening of next week before the House committee on agriculture on House bill 76, relating to the inspection of cows and milks. Anybody interested in this bill is invited to appear at this time.

Pelley of St. Johnsbury, publisher of the St. Johnsbury Caledonian, was a visitor in the city to-day on his way from Burlington, where last night he gave an address on his recent visit to the Far East. After getting as far as eastern Asia, Mr. Pelley found conditions such that he could not go further and he retraced his steps after visiting Japan and other countries of the Far East. He has now resumed the management of his newspaper in St. Johnsbury, although he will continue to write short stories for various magazines.

GOMPERS WITHDREW.

From Inter-Allied Trade Union Conference in Paris.

Paris, Friday, Jan. 31.—Delegates to the inter-allied trades union conference deliberated all day to-day on the question of participating in the labor and socialist conference at Bern. The debate was very lively, American and Belgian delegates refusing to recognize the international conference as at present planned. In the evening Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and other American delegates withdrew. The discussion continued without them and it was proposed that the international conference should be preceded by an inter-allied labor congress to be held in some other city. It was finally decided to defer decision until to-morrow afternoon.
